RPMS SCHOOL BASED HEALTH CENTER TEAM

Nurse Practitioner: Jolene Henion, APRN, FNP-BC

Jolene graduated from the University of Colorado with a bachelor's degree in Kinesiology and went directly into graduate school at the Massachusetts General Hospital Institute for Health Professions in Boston, Massachusetts. After 3 years of study, she graduated with her Master's in Nursing in the Family Nurse Practitioner track and became board certified by the American Nurses Credentialing Center in 2008. Her first job was in a Federally Qualified Health Center in Aurora, Illinois where she encountered the school-based health model for the first time. She was able to spend seven school years working in the SBHC of the local high school. When she moved with her family to Connecticut in 2015, took a job in the pediatric department of the Greater Danbury Community Health Center which included a few mornings a week at the SBHC located in Henry Abbot Technical School. She has been at Rogers Park Middle School full time since August 2016.

Clinical Social Worker: Lorena Santana, LCSW

Lorena Santana has been working with at risk youth since 2017. She is passionate about youth and families feeling supported, achieving overall wellness and being connected to resources. Lorena obtained her MSW at Fordham University in 2019 and has continued working with adolescents and families in a clinical lens. Lorena has experience working at an intensive outpatient level of care conducting individual, family, and group therapy. Lorena understands that representation matters and is eager to support Danbury community members. Lorena is well versed in Cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT) and Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT). Outside of work, Lorena enjoys trying new foods, and going on bike rides. Lorena believes that with forming a therapeutic alliance, being nonjudgmental and compassionate allows for the best care to be delivered.

Medical Office Assistant: Jemaleigh Garcia

Jemaleigh Garcia graduated from John Jay HS in Westchester County, New York back in 2013. Certified Phlebotomist and Medical Assistant, work for CareMount Medical as Phlebotomist Technician. In 2017 had a great opportunity to work for Crown Delta as Lab Assistant Formulating
